HANNA IS FOR M'ALPIN

Will Try to Defeat the President of the League of Re- publicans.

Chicago, Aug. 15.—It was reported today on very good authority that one of the many Mr. Hanna arranged durhis stay this city was a combina-for the "King of the Town" of Adjutant-General E. McKim, of New York, is a candidate for re-election as president of the League of Republican Clubs.

Until to-day it was supposed that the General would have very little opposition. Now, however, it is stated that Charles U. Gordon, the wealthy young estate dealer of this city, is slate for the position, and that ever since the nomination of McKinley at St. Louis, Hanna has been quietly engineering a deal.
During the past week the entire vote of the State has been pledged for Gordon, who has also the votes of the delegation from Wisconsin, Iowa, Nebraska and Oklahoma.

The secret of Hanna's opposition to McAlpin is this:
When Governor Morton, of New York, was a candidate for the nomination President, General McAlpin was one of most ardent supporters. At this time is claimed, overtures were made to General to desert Morton and support (McAlpin's) name to be used as a date for the Vice-Presidential campaign. General McAlpin refused, stating while he might be perfectly well respect the nomination for the dency, he could not think of thing that would in any way with Governor Morton's chan-this refusal on the part of Gen-pin that caused the McKinley slide that he should not succeed President of the League of Clubs.

Herkimer, N. Y., Aug. 15.—Warner Miller Titus Sheard locked horns to-day in the Herkimer County Republican Convention. Two conventions were held to-night both sides are claiming victory. There will be two sets of delegates to the Republican State Convention this county, and for the first time in the history of the county Miller will have his seat contested. Sheard to-night claims that his convention was regular, and this will have to be decided by the Committee on Credentials at the Saratoga Convention.
It is likely that Miller and his friends turned down, as Platt will be in control of the situation, and his first lieutenant in the Herkimer County Convention.
The best informed political believe Miller is "outside the ring" for good, and will be laid to rest in a political grave opened for him by his friends.

TRAMPS AT A WEDDING.

They Held up the Guests, Devour the Feast and Even Stole the Marriage License.

Springfield, Ohio, Aug. 15.—The experience of a young married couple in Hicksville, Ohio, a small town in the State, reads more like the creation from the brain of some of the writers in the comic papers than a sober reality.

G. L. Rider and Miss Hattie Newcomb, living near Hicksville, were married the night before last. The ceremony had been performed and the guests were just about to do justice to the wedding supper when fifteen hungry and villainous looking tramps put in an appearance and held up the house as completely as any stage robbers in the far West could have done it.

First, the tramps yelled: "Hands up!" and proceeded to search the guests for money and valuables, and as none of the guests had thought of coming armed they were completely at the mercy of the tramps. Having obtained all the guests' belongings, the tramps then proceeded to drive them into a milk house, in front of which they established a guard. They then sat down and ate up the entire wedding supper to the last crumb.

Among the other things taken from the wedding party was the groom's coat, in the pocket of which was the marriage license.
Three of the tramps were afterward arrested.

ILLNESS OF MRS. BEECHER.

She Was Very Nearly Overcome by the Heat and Has Been Confined to Her Bed for Several Days.

Mrs. Eunice Beecher, widow of the famous pastor of Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, has been seriously ill for a week at her home, No. 40 Orange street, in that city.
She suffered from heat prostration and over exertion, and for a day or two her condition was critical.

Mrs. Beecher is nearly eighty-four years old, but is active in mind and remarkably active in body for a woman of her age.

Last Sunday morning she went to Plymouth Church, which is on the next block from her house. She hurried along so that she might be in time, and when she returned home was very much fatigued. The next day, however, she made a journey to New York to see an old friend, who was ill. She returned in the evening worn out and in danger of a collapse.

Dr. W. E. Searle, who was Henry Ward Beecher's physician, was sent for and Mrs. Beecher has been under his care ever since. When he called yesterday he found his distinguished patient much improved and cheerful over her rapid convalescence.

William C. Whitney has arranged a modern Utopia in which his son, Henry Payne Whitney, and Gertrude Vanderbilt are to spend their honeymoon.

Within the last two days Mr. Whitney has completed, through an agent, the purchase of the Berkshire Hills, eight miles chase of nearly 3,000 acres of land in the from the exclusive Summer resort of Lenox, Mass.

The cost of the property is said to have been more than $200,000, and on it the ex-Secretary intends to erect one of the finest Summer homes in the United States.
He has upward of 200 workmen engaged on the place at present, and it will be ready for the reception of young Mr. and Mrs.
Whitney on the day of their marriage, August 25.

Owing to the short time between now and the wedding, the grounds, buildings and surroundings cannot be put in proper condition, but the bridal couple and the friends who accompany them, will spend the few remaining weeks of the heated term in the open air.

LOST LIFE GIVING A CIGAR.

In Trying to Hand One to a Train Hand Henry Schneider Fell from an "L" Station and Broke His Neck.

Henry Schneider, a well-known salesman, met with a peculiar death at the Alabama avenue station of the Brooklyn Elevated Railroad last night.

Mr. Schneider left his place of business in this city about 5 o'clock. After crossing the Bridge he boarded an elevated train, intending to go to his home on Ferris avenue, Woodhaven, L. I. His plan was to ride to East New York and then take a Rapid Transit train for Woodhaven.

He rode as far as the Alabama avenue station and got off at that point. During the ride to East New York he had been talking to one of the trainmen, and after reaching the platform thought he would give him a cigar. The train had started to move, and waving his hand and shouting, Mr. Schneider ran toward the Georgia avenue end of the platform.

In his anxiety to reach the trainman and give him the cigar, Mr. Schneider forgot everything. He ran blindly until he reached the end of the platform, when over he went and fell head foremost to the street, 17 feet below.

His head struck the pavement, and his skull was fractured and his neck broken, killing him instantly. A crowd gathered, and a policeman summoned the patrol wagon from the Liberty Avenue Police Station. His body was taken to Deminger's undertaking establishment and his wife notified.

CARRIED OFF BY A WAVE.

Kronenberger Was Drowned from a Yacht Crossing the Bar Off Atlantic City.

Atlantic City, N. J., Aug. 15.—Lewis D.
Kronenberger, a well-known Philadelphian and the representative in that city of Bernard Elmann & Co., of No. 113 Grand street, New York, was lost overboard from the little yacht Sparkle as the boat was coming in over the bar from a fishing trip outside.

There was a choppy sea running on the bar when the little craft entered the inlet.
Two big waves partially upset the yacht, and Kronenberger was swept overboard.
Another yacht, which was passing out, got alongside of the drowning man, and one of her crew caught him by the hair. Another wave wrenched him loose and he disappeared. His body was not recovered. Mr.
Kronenberger had been stopping at a cottage on Atlantic, near Virginia, avenue, with his wife and two small children.
